

About the Director

Delphine Del Bello Spencer began her professional performing career with an apprenticeship in the Joffrey Ballet Company after which she became a member of the Joffrey II Company and Ballet Repertory of New York. She then moved to Philadelphia where she joined Pennsylvania Ballet and Sybil Modern Dance Company. During her teaching career she has been a member of the Temple University Dance Department and the Philadelphia High School for the Creative and Performing Arts. She has been awarded the Monticello College Foundation Fellowship for outstanding choreography, as well as a Choreographic Fellowship from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts.

Performing Opportunities

The Pennsylvania Dance Institute works collaboratively with our professional ballet company to offer our students performance opportunities in conjunction with our exceptional training. Performance opportunities are vital to artistic development and highly recommended.

The PDI Spring Student Showcase offers performance opportunities for the Theater Dance Students participating in jazz, tap, hip-hop and modern dance.

Dance Del Bello

Dance Del Bello is a non-profit ballet and modern dance company in residence at the Pennsylvania Dance Institute. Dance Del Bello brings a professional level of performance to the Delaware Valley. The company is a spirited troupe of adult dancers and PDI students (by invitation only) directed by Delphine Del Bello Spencer. The quality of the dance and commitment of the dancers is a direct result of both Ms. Spencer's expertise in the field and her unlimited devotion to excellence in the world of dance. In addition to its classical and neo-classical ballet repertoire, the company also performs originally choreographed modern works by Ms. Spencer. For further information see www.dancedelbello.org
